REPORT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP, INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

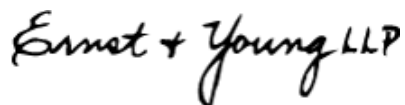

The Administration Committee and Participants
Analog Devices, Inc.
The Investment Partnership Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of Analog Devices, Inc. The Investment Partnership Plan as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2002, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001

A. Description of Plan

The following description of the Analog Devices, Inc. (the "Company") The Investment Partnership Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

1. General. The Plan is a contributory defined contribution plan sponsored and administered by the Company. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").
2. Eligibility. Domestic employees of the Company are eligible to participate in the Plan on the first pay-period of the month following 30 days of service. The Company contributions are effective on the first day of a calendar quarter following one year of service. For eligibility purposes, a year of service is a 12-month period during which an employee completes at least 1,000 hours of service.
3. Contributions. The Company makes an annual basic contribution to the Plan equal to 5% of each participant's total eligible compensation. The Internal Revenue Service defined total eligible compensation as an amount not to exceed $200,000 for 2002 and $170,000 in 2001. For 2003, this amount will remain at $200,000. The Company also matches each participant's pre-tax contribution, if any, by contributing an amount not to exceed 3% (for all participants, except those eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan) of such participant's total eligible compensation. Effective January 1, 2002, a participant may voluntarily contribute to the Plan up to 50% of his or her pre-tax total eligible compensation, (12% in 2001); however, pre-tax contributions could not exceed $11,000 in 2002 and $10,500 in 2001. This amount will increase to $12,000 for 2003.

Company contributions, participants' pre-tax contributions and the net investment income related to all contributions are excluded from the participants' income for federal income tax purposes until such amounts are withdrawn or distributed.

4. Investment Options. The investment options of the Plan are listed below.

- Income Fund
- Fidelity Equity Income Fund
- Fidelity Magellan Fund
- Fidelity Growth Company Fund
- Analog Devices, Inc. Common Stock Fund
- Fidelity U.S. Bond Index Fund
- Fidelity Growth & Income Portfolio
- Fidelity U.S. Equity Index Commingled Pool

Fidelity Freedom Income Fund
Fidelity Freedom 2000 Fund
Fidelity Freedom 2010 Fund
Fidelity Freedom 2020 Fund
Fidelity Freedom 2030 Fund
Fidelity Freedom 2040 Fund

Additionally, participants have the option to invest vested assets in Fidelity and non-Fidelity funds, which are not offered in the Plan, through a self-directed brokerage service that allows participants access to a wide variety of stocks, bonds, short-term securities and mutual funds.

5. Vesting. Employee contributions are immediately 100% vested and nonforfeitable at the time they are deducted from the participants' compensation. Investment income on employee contributions vests as earned. Effective January 1, 2002, Company match contributions made thereon and investment earnings become vested after three years of service. Company contributions (both basic and pre-2002 match) and investment earnings thereon become fully vested upon the first to occur of (i) completion of five years of service with the Company, (ii) after reaching age 65 or (iii) upon death or permanent disability while employed by the Company.
6. Benefits. Upon normal retirement at age 65, death, permanent disability or termination of employment, the participant's vested benefits are paid to the participant or his or her beneficiary, at the election of the participant, either in a lump sum or in monthly installments over a period of up to ten years. A participant may elect to defer payment of his or her account until he or she attains age 70 1/2. However, if a participant's vested benefits are less than $5,000 for 2002 and 2001, upon termination of employment, distribution will be made in the form of a lump-sum payment within one year following termination of employment. Participants may request an in-service withdrawal for any reason after he or she attains age 59 1/2.
7. Loans. Participants may borrow the lesser of 50% of their vested account balance or $50,000, as defined by the Plan. Participants repay loans plus interest to their accounts through payroll deductions generally over a five-year period unless for the purchase of a primary residence, in which case the repayment period may be extended up to twenty years. The interest rate on loans, which is announced quarterly, is tied to the interest rate of Treasury Bonds with 3- and 10-year maturities. Once determined, the interest rate is fixed for the duration of the loan.

ANALOG DEVICES, INC.

8. Accounting. A separate account is maintained for each participant. Account balances are adjusted periodically for employee and matching employer contributions, withdrawals and a pro rata share of net investment income (loss). Forfeitures that arise when participants terminate employment with the Company prior to vesting are used to offset future Company contributions and administrative expenses of the Plan. If an employee who had terminated after December 31, 1984 returns to the employment of the Company within five years, any amount that had been forfeited will be reinstated by the Company.

All transactions of the Plan (including contributions, withdrawals and exchanges) have been accounted for and reported using units as well as dollars. Net investment income (loss) in each fund is allocated based on the proportion of units in each participant's account, except for the Self-Directed Brokerage Service, whereby earnings are recorded on a transaction specific basis.

9. Investment allocation. The vested and nonvested share of a participant's account balance is invested in one or more of the funds depending upon the allocation instructions of the participant. In the absence of such allocation instructions, all amounts accruing to the participant are invested in the Income Fund.

10. Continuation of the Plan. While the Company has not expressed any intent to terminate the Plan or suspend contributions, it is free to do so at any time. In the event of such termination or suspension, each participant would have a nonforfeitable right to all monies in his or her account.

B. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

1. Basis of presentation. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis of accounting.

2. Investments. Investments are valued at quoted market prices. Participant loans are valued at their outstanding carrying balance, which approximates fair value.

3. Contributions. Contributions from employees are recorded when the Company makes payroll deductions from plan participants. Employer contributions are accrued at the end of the period in which they become obligations of the Company based upon the terms of the Plan.

4. Investment income (loss). Net investment income (loss) consists of interest income, dividends and capital gain/loss distributions from the money market and mutual funds, realized gains or losses on sales of investments and the change in net unrealized appreciation (depreciation) between the cost and market value of investments at the beginning and end of the period.

All interest, dividends and capital gains distributions are reinvested in the respective funds and are recorded as earned on an accrual basis.

ANALOG DEVICES, INC.

Interest, dividends, capital gain/loss distributions and unrealized appreciation (depreciation) have been allocated to participants based upon the proportion that each participant's share in a fund bears to the total in that fund, except for the Self-Directed Brokerage Service, whereby investment income is recorded on a transaction specific basis (see Note A).

5. Income tax status. The Plan has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated May 1, 2003, stating that the Plan is qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and, therefore, the related trust is exempt from taxation. Once qualified, the Plan is required to operate in conformity with the Code to maintain its qualification. The Plan Committee believes the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code and, therefore, that the Plan is qualified and the related trust is tax exempt.
6. Administrative expenses. For the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company elected to pay the administrative expenses of the Plan.
7. Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of changes in net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. Trustee and Plan Recordkeeper

Fidelity Management Trust Company and Fidelity Institutional Retirement Services Company serve as trustee and recordkeeper, respectively, to the Plan.
